

flower & plant sale 2010

Order Today! Deadline: April 30

Grootendort's Flowerland Nursery

Dear Gardener,

Now is the time to stock up on some beautiful annuals for your home and garden. We have teamed up with Grootendort's Flowerland Nursery to bring you some wonderful plants and displays, and create some smiles!

Proceeds from this plant sale will help support our work with youth in Vancouver, to keep our passenger van on the road, to help get kids to summer camp, to provide supplies for our weekly programs, and to support our full time youth workers.

We love what we do, and we see hope and potential in EVERY young person that we meet. Your support will help us to encourage these young people to live amazing lives. Thank you.
