

High School Campus Job Description

| | |
|--|--|
| Why we do this | Flowing out of the mission of Jesus, YFC Youth Unlimited in Maple Ridge, (under the umbrella of Greater Vancouver YFC Youth Unlimited), provides opportunities for Youth to engage in a community of supportive people who are passionate about inspiring them to embrace life to the fullest ... physically, emotionally, intellectually, socially and spiritually. We see the hope and potential in every young person and seek to empower them to succeed ... according to how God determines their success. |
| The work | Engaging teens where they are at, within the High School setting by organizing/leading/facilitating lunch and after school discussion and/or focus clubs, breakfast club and out of school activities, trips and events as required. Volunteering to serve the High School as the need is known and arises. Mentoring teens officially and unofficially in small groups and in one on one meetings. Promoting the ministry within the church, school and the community. |
| Abilities | Have good communication skills Able to lead a small team of volunteers Have experience with working with vulnerable youth & youth in general Able to plan and coordinate meetings, small groups and events Work within the context of Maple Ridge YU staff team and values (attached) Able to work in team and independently Be passionate about discipleship and evangelism Able to obtain and engage a network of financial and prayer Partners Able to obtain a class 4 drivers licence |
| Working Conditions | Telephone and computer work at home or in YFC YU Maple Ridge office Meeting Youth and adults in the High School, coffee shops, churches and other public places Use of own vehicle to travel to the locations required Meeting and working with other YU MR staff, Greater Vancouver staff, volunteers and MR Area Director Meeting, developing and maintaining ministry partnerships with church, school and community organizations Occasional evening and weekend work. Occasional day and extended trips. Salary, expenses and benefits, (as applicable), are all raised by the applicant, with extensive training and support from the YU Maple Ridge team |
| Time Commitment | Part Time, at 16 hours per week to start May develop into a full time position |
| Training | Orientation, general training upon acceptance Ministry and partner development training upon acceptance Hands on ministry training in partnership with other YU staff, 2 year credentialing training Continuous commitment to ministry development, training under the Greater Vancouver umbrella |
| Supervision and Feedback | Weekly meetings with supervisor and other YU team Direct reporting to supervisor |